

SPIRITS

alcoholic beverages

The repertoire of our spirits is a symphony of color, aroma, flavor, and nobility in all its glory. For centuries, fermented alcohol has accompanied humanity. The finest spirits have been an integral part of religious rituals, offerings, celebrations, military campaigns, and feasts.

Our menu is undoubtedly ruled by local specialties, for which the Slavic lands are justly renowned. From the Polish aperitif of dry cider, to beer with its deep roots in Slavic traditions, vodkas, exquisite liqueurs, and the exceptional native meads, to offerings that have also found a lasting home in our region.

Liqueurs & Tinctures

Liqueurs are alcoholic extracts made from fruits, roots, flowers, or herbs.

They are prepared through maceration, which involves soaking the ingredients in alcohol to extract and preserve the flavors and aromas.

Liqueurs are a related alcoholic product to tinctures, characterized by their distinct sweetness
